RUSSIANS ATTACK.

The Japanese Left Flank Has Been Driven Back With Heavy Loss.

THEIR RETREAT WAS CUT OFF.

Sanguinary Engagement Has Taken Place at Laikhezi, About Fifteen Miles Southeast of Shakhe.

Out of One Company of a Russian Rifle Brigade Only 50 Men Were Left—The Russians Retake
Lone Tree Hill.

Mukden, Oct. 19.—It is reported that the Russian army is advancing. Rain is hindering everything. The rivers are bankfull and the fords are impassable.
There are no bridges. Supplies of all sorts are delayed.

Cossacks brought in captured guns and Japanese wounded prisoners on October 17. Russian soldiers surrounded the prisoners and gave them bread and water and in other ways tried to relieve their wants.

News has just been received that the Japanese left flank has been driven back with heavy loss and its retreat cut off. A Russian regiment is now being hurried to the scene in the hope of completing the rout.

An officer who has just returned from Gen. Mistchenko's division reports that a sanguinary fight has taken place at Laikhezi, 15 miles southeast of Shakhe, to which fort Gen.
Mistchenko retired in order to preserve communication between the Russian center and eastern flank. The Japanese made a determined effort to cut the line of communication at this point and attacked under cover of a terrific cannonade. Out of one company of a Russian rifle brigade only 50 men were left. Two companies that had expended their ammunition prior to the last Japanese attack in the trenches until the Japanese were within a few paces. Then the Russians buried a volley of stones, charged and broke the attacking line, compelling the Japanese to flee. There was fighting
Tuesday on both sides of the Great Mandarin road.

Gen. Kuropatkin is indefatigable, personally directing the forward operations. Nothing seems to affect him, but he wears his usual quiet smile under all circumstances.

The last Japanese defenders of Lone Tree hill, two artillery officers, refused quarter and died fighting with their swords beside their guns.

LONE TREE HILL BATTLE.

Field Presents the Most Awful Spectacle That Can Be Conceived.

Mukden, Oct. 19.—Lone Tree hill, won by the Russians after a desperate struggle, was the object of a gallant but unsuccessful attempt at recapture by the Japanese. In spite of the awful slaughter with which they had been driven from the hill the Japanese returned to the charge during the night of October 17, recognizing that the hill was the key to the position on the southwest front. Nine regiments participated, creeping up through the night and delivering a furious assault at dawn. But the hill had been bought too dearly by the Russians to relinquish it and the Japanese were driven back with terrible slaughter.

The battlefield of Lone Tree hill presents the most awful spectacle that can be conceived. Russian and Japanese dead are mingled in heaps in inextricable confusion. The ground is strewn with broken rifles that had been smashed in hand-to-hand fighting. Everything seems to have been utilized as weapons. The Russian doctors are working heroically on the slopes of the hill in the attempt to save those of the wounded who still survive, but the Japanese keep up a sniping fire and render the work of relief difficult and dangerous.

The fighting Tuesday slackened considerably owing to rain and the impassable condition of the roads.

As this dispatch was filed, Tuesday evening, the Russians were retaining the ground gained at the Shakhe river. Several Maxim guns have been captured. The firing ceased after dark Tuesday.

RUSSIAN CASUALTIES.

It is Estimated That They Are From 20,000 to 25,000.

Headquarters of Gen. Oku's Left Army, Oct. 16, via Fusan, Oct. 19.—Since Sunday last the Japanese left army has buried 4,100 Russian dead. It is estimated that the Russian casualties are from 20,000 to 25,000. The Japanese report their casualties at about 3,000. Early this morning the Japanese continued to advance, driving the Russians before them and capturing two guns and many rifles.

Hawkins, of the Burley Tobacco association, will be here Wednesday.

THE VANDERBILT CASE.

Court of Appeals Affirmed the Appeal
From Lower Court.

Frankfort, Ky., Oct. 19.—The court of appeals Tuesday affirmed the case of Commonwealth vs. William K. Vanderbilt, appealed from Mason county. The auditor's agent brought the suit against Vanderbilt, seeking to collect taxes on about $20,000,000 of stock in three railroads, the Chesapeake & Ohio being one of them, on the ground that the railroad commission and assessor had failed to assess said stock. The court held that Vanderbilt had only been "constructively summoned" and that no personal judgment could be rendered against him.

Both Men Wounded.

Madisonville, Ky., Oct. 19.—D. F. Ferguson and Ed Hanks, miners at Daniel Boone, fought in the streets of that place. The shooting grew out of a quarrel they had while imbibing. RAILWAY MISHAPS

The Annual Report of the Inter-State Commerce Commission Made Public.

INCREASE IN KILLED AND INJURED

Four Hundred and Twenty of the Dead Were Passengers and Over Three Thousand Employees.

Included in These Figures Are Statistics of the Last Three Months of the Year, 677 Killed and 11,418 Injured.

Washington, Oct. 19.—The inter-state commerce commission made its annual report Tuesday on the casualties on railways in the United States during the last fiscal year. There were 3,787 persons killed and 51,343 persons injured.

The casualties were an increase of 233 killed and of 5,326 injured over the preceding year. Four hundred and twenty of those killed were passengers and 3,367 railroad employees, and of those injured 8,077 were passengers and 43,266 railroad employees. Included in these figures are the statistics for the last three months of the year, which show a total of 677 killed and 11,418 injured, a decrease from the preceding quarter. These figures do not include casualties at highway crossings, to trespassers or persons walking along the track, in shops remote from the railroad or to employees not actually on duty; nor trifling accidents to employees which did not prevent them from performing their accustomed service for more than three days, in the aggregate, during the ten days immediately following the accidents.

The report says: "As the accident bulletins are issued to furnish the public with facts, this exhibit of the dangers of railroad travel—an exhibit which the most conservative must agree should be termed alarming—will not be made subject of comment in this place; but it will be proper to observe that each succeeding bulletin adds materially to the mass of evidence going to enforce the observations and recommendations which were made in the last annual report of the commission.

RESPIRATORY DISEASES.

The Newly Formed Investigation Commission Meets.

New York, Oct. 19.—The newly formed commission for the investigation of acute respiratory diseases met for the first time Tuesday night at the offices of the New York board of health. The committee is composed of the best medical authorities in such diseases in this country.

The commission will endeavor to find means to prevent the growing infection from acute respiratory diseases, particularly pneumonia. Some months ago Commissioner Darlington, owing to the alarming increase in diseases of this character, induced the city to appropriate $10,000 for the organization of a committee to assist the city of New York in fighting these diseases. The commissioner thereupon requested the aid of medical men who, with him, make up the commission.

At the meeting Tuesday Dr. Edward G. Janeway, of New York, was elected president, and Dr. T. Mitchell Prudden, of New York, secretary. The committee decided to make a systematic study of pneumonia in New York. The commission will attempt the question of a sufficient supply of fresh air in public meeting places and will also devote attention to the study of sporadic cases and their cause and origin. The sub-committee will deal with the work.

After the meeting Commissioner Darlington said that there had been a steady increase in the death rate from pulmonary diseases since 1866. Of 42,700 deaths in the first six months of the present year, 43 per cent. were due to pulmonary diseases.

THE GUESSING CONTEST.

It Will Not Be Stopped By the Authorities at Present.

Washington, Oct. 19.—The department of justice has received the petition of well-known Cincinnatians, who protest against the election guessing contests as conducted by two Cincinnati newspapers, quoting the opinion of a New York court in support of the contention that the scheme in question is a lottery.

The matter is as yet before the department, but informally, and Assistant Attorney General Robb, who has it in charge, does not feel called upon to take action at once. Gen. Robb believes that the New York decision quoted absolutely covers the case, but he also deems it ill-advisable to take action before the close of the elections and St. Louis World's fair, upon which nearly all contests are based, on the ground that if they were to be stopped now the public would be losers and the promoters of the schemes the only gainers.

STATE LIBRARIANS.

First Session of the National Association Held at St. Louis.

St. Louis, Oct. 19.—The first session of the National Association of State Librarians was called to order at the World's fair Tuesday by President Johnson Brigham, of Des Moines, Ia. Mr. Frederick M. Weather Forecast.

Fair to-night and Thursday. Colder Thursday.

The free-silver men in Kentucky stood the brunt of the campaign of 1896 and 1900, and again they are leading the battle for Democracy. Those who expect them to bolt or remain away from the polls are nursing a forlorn hope. They will answer that slander in November in unmistakable terms.

The Democratic Campaign Committee will have a speaker on every stump, in every school house and hall in the State every day and night for the last two weeks of the contest. It will be a veritable feast of oratory with all the leading spell binders in action, assisted by hundreds of eloquent young men who have volunteered for the fray. The apathy that marked the earlier days of the fight has given way to an interest which will quickly kindle into enthusiasm.

JUDGE WALTER EVANS throws out a gentle hint that he may need the grand jury a little later. This covert threat is intended for political effect, particularly in regard to the registration in Louisville. As the registration was conducted under the State law Judge Evans has nothing to do with it. If he would play a little less politics and dig deeper into his law books he might escape some of the humiliating reversals which the higher courts have visited upon him ever since his accession to the bench.

GAME LAW IN FORCE.

For the First Time in Kentucky Rabbits
May Not Be Killed Until the Middle of November.

At the season when rabbits and quail are getting ripe, it is well to remember that the new game law, passed by the last Legislature, is in force. This law prohibits the killing of rabbits between September 15 and November 15, and altogether prohibits the sale of quail killed in Kentucky.

This is the first time in the history of Kentucky that the killing of rabbits has been prohibited by law. The reason for this is said to be to render easy the enforcement of the quail law. Heretofore, many hunters would go to the country ostensibly to kill rabbits, when they were in truth looking for partridges.
Others who went for rabbits, could not resist the temptation to kill quail when the latter were discovered. Under the present law, any one found in fields with a shot-gun may be construed as violating the law. The killing of rabbits in any way other than with dogs or snares between the dates given, is prohibited.

JUDGE WALL RETURNS.

The Numerous Functions and Receptions at the Kentucky Building, World's Fair, Kept the Commissioner Busy.

Judge Wall returned from the World's Fair yesterday where he has had charge of the Kentucky Building as commissioner since the first of October.

Whilst in charge, the alumni of the Sisters of Loretto, the bankers of Kentucky, the brickmakers of the United States, the Daughters of the Confederacy and the Daughters of the American Revolution held conventions and receptions in the Kentucky Building.

At the D. A. R. meeting Mrs. Adlai E. Stephenson, widow of Vice President Stephenson, Mrs. Fairbanks, wife of Senator Fairbanks, Mrs. Daniel Manning and Mrs. William Lindsay were the most prominent ladies, Senator Lindsay and the commissioner being the only gentlemen present.

Ohio, Iowa, Illinois, New York, New Jersey, Connecticut, Michigan and Missouri gave receptions. These functions with the ball and parade of the Veiled Prophets and the continuous reception at the Kentucky Building kept the Judge busy.

Miss Margaret Allison entertained with a flinch party at "Sunnyside" Tuesday afternoon.

The police have been notified to look out for a gang of thieves who robbed a freight car at an up-river station Monday.

Dr. Arthur S. Lloyd of New York, has declined the Episcopal Bishopric of Kentucky, to which he was elected three weeks ago.

Miss Josie and Helen Connor entertained a crowd of friends and relatives at their home last Saturday and Sunday, the guests also enjoyed a lovely outing at the riverside.

We are requested to say that the Grimes-Bradley marriage took place in Indianapolis, and not Cincinnati, as published last week. The ceremony was not performed by Rev. Collins, either.

The First ward school has closed until next Monday on account of the prevalence of diphtheria. The rooms will be thoroughly fumigated in the meantime.

Emmett Ratican of Owensboro was being operated upon a few days ago for kidney trouble when a knife in the hand of the operating surgeon slipped and the point was broken off. The tiny piece of steel disappeared and every effort to find it has been without success. It is presumed that it is in the injured man's bladder, as it is causing him much pain.

The Department of Justice at Washington has received the petition of well-known Cincinnatians, who protested against the election guessing contests as conducted by the Enquirer and Commercial Tribune, quoting the opinion of a New York Court in support of the contention that the scheme in question is a lottery.

Mrs. Fannie Gaitskill made allegations in a divorce petition against F. M. Gaitskill at Newport Monday. They were married here in 1892. During March, 1903, while living at Lexington, she says he induced her to sell her real estate, and securing the money left that city with a married woman named Dora Martin. It is further charged that Gaitskill and the Martin woman went to Cincinnati and are now living together there.

"The Liberty Belles," Harry B. Smith's delightful musical comedy, including the famous radium ballet, which will be seen at the Washington Friday evening, is in every respect a genuine novelty. It is heralded as being clean, free from vulgarity, pure and wholesome. Coming as it does with an unbroken record from every large city and the first-class theatres of the country, it is no surprise that the advance sale of seats shows up to such large proportions. Tickets now on sale at Ray's drug store.

Clothes-Ology

Is the science of Clothes, including knowledge of cloth handicraft, in making, economy of production and artistic originality of design. A technical knowledge of the first three is important, but it is the last that reveals the creative master mind. Hence, gentlemen, our Mackinette and Craventte Overcoats bearing the mark "R. & W." are so popular with our good dressers. They are made under above named conditions. Young gentlemen, you who have never worn one of our Rochester made Suites, just slip into one, "she'll" see the difference. There is an individuality to them that at a glance distinguishes them from all other makes.

Our Shoe business is growing to such proportions that we added the celebrated "Walk-Over" Shoe to our line. Hanan, Douglas and Walk-Over, the three best lines in the country are now found in our house.

Corduroy Suits and Pants are now in order. We have an immense stock of them. Special inducements in Corduroy Pants to merchants. Price ours before you buy them in Cincinnati; we'll save you money. When hunting season begins be sure and get one of our Sweaters.

HERE AT HOME.

Maysville Citizens Gladly Testify.

It is testimony like the following that has placed "the old Quaker remedy" so far above competitors. When people right here at home raise their voice in praise there is no room left for doubt. Read the public statement of a Maysville citizen.

Mr. Elias Scudder, nurseryman, residing at 215 Casto street, says: "I had a good deal of pain at times in my right kidney and it constantly grew more persistent. When I learned of Doan's Kidney Pills I could hardly sit down in a chair, or rise without placing my hands to my back, and should I thoughtlessly bend over, it pained me severely to straighten. I procured Doan's Kikney Pills at J. Jas. Wood & Son's drugstore, corner of West Second and Market streets, and their use affected an absolute cure."

For sale by all dealers; price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N.Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name DOAN'S and take no substitute.

The erection of poles shall be under the supervision of the Turnpike Commissioners or such other persons as the Fiscal Court may designate. The Fiscal Court of Mason County expressly reserves the right to hereafter offer and sell as many other similar rights and privileges as it may wish to.
